DIPLOMA OF MARKETING AND COMMUNICATION

The Diploma of Marketing and Communication is a full-time qualification which requires 20 hours per week college attendance over a period of 28 weeks excluding holidays. Additional home-based study will be required.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS
Entry to this qualification is limited to those individuals who have completed all core units in BSB42415 Certificate IV in Marketing and Communication. The following five units represent the core:

- BSBCOMM401 Make a presentation
- BSBCRT401 Articulate, present and debate ideas
- BSBMGT407 Apply digital solutions to work processes
- BSBMKG417 Apply marketing communication across a convergent industry
- BSBMKG418 Develop and apply knowledge of marketing communication industry

ACBC also requires candidates to have completed the NSW Higher School Certificate or its equivalent.

If a student does not have existing competence in the entry requirement units, they may undertake the five units at ACBC, prior to the commencement of the Diploma course. Achieving competence in all five units is required in order to commence the BSB52415 Diploma of Marketing and Communication. Students who wish to complete the five entry requirement units at ACBC, will be enrolled in the units separately and will be awarded a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment for successfully completing these units.

QUALIFICATION
Graduates completing all components of the course and demonstrating competence in all units will be awarded a nationally recognised BSB52415 Diploma of Marketing and Communication, which is currently in release 1.

A nationally recognised Statement of Attainment will be issued where a student has withdrawn but has successfully completed part of the qualification or completes the course but does not demonstrate competency in all units.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES
Students who complete the Diploma qualification have a pathway for further study into the Advanced Diploma of Marketing and Communication. Graduates may also apply to undertake commerce and business qualifications at university. Upon successful completion of this course and with suitable experience, students may work in areas such as:

- Marketing manager
- Marketing team leader
